Marketing Analysis

5 Low Performing Product types

Low performers are healthy items suffering from low awareness, not low quality.

Top 5 Performing Product Types

Bundle low performers with high performers. Increase visibility by repositioning low performing items on the primary menu board.

Recommendations

- Own the Morning (33% of $698K revenue): Launch 7-11 AM Morning Bundle specials, add 1 extra barista on morning shift, and enable pre-order for office rush.
- Fix Bakery Opportunity: Push Coffee + Bakery combo to grow Bakery from 10.8% to 20% revenue. Current attachment is too low — every coffee should pair with pastry.
- Bundle High + Low Performers: Pair Top 5 (Barista Espresso, Brewed Chai) with Low 5 (Green tea, Green beans, Organic Chocolate, Sugar free syrup, Black tea) — e.g., "Add Organic Chocolate for +$1.50".
- Reposition Healthy Items: Move Green tea / Green beans / Organic Chocolate from bottom menu to primary eye-level menu. Create "Healthy Corner" signage — low sales is low awareness, not low quality.
- Seasonal Pricing Strategy: Jan is lowest ($80K), June is peak ($175K). Run Winter Warmer (free extra shot) in Jan-Feb, and increase price +$0.30 in June — no discount needed at peak.
- No New Stores Yet: Hell's Kitchen 33.8%, Lower Manhattan 33.2%, Astoria 32.9% — all equal. Optimize existing 3 stores first before expansion.
